

AGENDA

for discussion during meeting with Minister of Emergencies of Ukraine
22 of April 2011, 10:30, Kiev, Ukraine

Aim of the meeting: Discussion about perspectives of organization of assistance from the side of international organizations and institutions for implementation of State social program of fire safety on 2011 – 2014 that related to risk reduction of wildfires in the exclusion zone

Participants:

Victor Baloga, Minister of Emergencies of Ukraine

Dmytro Bobro, Deputy Head of State Agency on the management of the exclusion zone

Dmytro Melnychuk, Rector, National University of Life and Environmental Sciences of Ukraine

Chadwick D. Oliver, Director, Prof., Yale University School of Forestry and Environmental Studies and Global Institute of Sustainable Forestry

Johann G. Goldammer, Director, Global Fire Monitoring Centre / Freiburg University, UN ISDR, UN ECE

Volodymyr Svryda, Council of National Security and Defense of Ukraine

Valeriy Kashparov, Director, Ukrainian Institute of agricultural radiology

Sergiy Zibtsev, NUBiP of Ukraine

Topics for discussion:

1. Short overview of situation related to existing risks of large wildfires in the exclusion zone. Measures that is taken by Ministry of Emergencies of Ukraine. Assessment of situation by experts - participants of the meeting (Prof. Chadwick Oliver, Prof. Johann Goldammer)
2. Action plan for 2011 – 2014 and costs for their implementation. Sources of costs. Call to international organizations related to additional assistance for solving the problem.
3. Potential and perspectives of co-operation between Ministry of Emergencies of Ukraine and other interesting Agencies and foreign partners of the project in USA (Yale University, USFS) and EU (GFMC, CoE, ENVSEC) in the area of expert assistance, capacity building and training, research, analysis and forecasting of risks, recommendations related to infrastructure development in the exclusion zone. Road map and plan of co-operation.
4. Discussion