3. How useful, interesting and appropriate for your proficiency level were the readings from the Course Packet (La independencia de México, el poema Recuerdo Infantil y el fragmento de la novela Tía Lola que vino de visita a quedarse)?

I could understand them, but they weren't that interesting, and we didn't do very much with them.

4. Did you watch the videos in CENTRO? Did you find the videos useful? Did you do the activities based on those videos found in the Course Packet?

I didn't watch many of them. They were hard to understand and often the questions didn't seem to match up.

5. How did you like doing your lab assignments in CENTRO? Do you recommend we use CENTRO again next year?

Yes, Centro was useful. It was a little annoying that we couldn't see what the right answers were if we got a question wrong - made it hard to learn from our mistakes.

6. How did you like the chapter book Lejos de casa?

It was fine... it wasn't a very good story.

7. Was the amount of homework appropriate?

Yes

8. List the major strengths of the course.

I learned to read, write, and understand Spanish pretty well.

9. How might the course be improved? Be specific.

There could be more speaking. I feel like I'm still not comfortable w/ verb tenses and pronouns while I'm speaking.

10. Overall, this course is:  excellent  very good  good  satisfactory  poor
