1088305	I wouldn't have wanted to take L1 with anyone else. Professor Alexandrov was always actively engaged and approachable. I always looked forward to her section, even though it was a 9:25 am class.
1088312	Sybil is extremely energetic and passionate about teaching, which engages the students. She also very helpful and very knowledgeable, and genuinely cares about the student and their wellbeing academically. Sybil is always available for extra help and is always happy and pleasant in class.
1090938	Strength: enthusiasm, patience, made an effort to give super helpful feedback, knowledgeable
1094677	Great teacher. Has a lot of energy and seems to really care about students
1094754	She was FANTASTIC!
1094983	Sra. Alexandrov was a great instructor; she explained everything very clearly, was very engaging in class, and gave thorough feedback for our work.
1095245	Absolutely great instructor. She knew when it was time to crack on and also time to answer questions and have the moment to appreciate something funny. Very interactive and engaging teaching style and I am annoyed she won't be teaching me L2 next semester.
1095561	She was great, made class exciting even when the textbook activities seemed a bit mundane.
1095609	Our instructor was amazing. She made the class very fun and enjoyable. It was a 9am class that I didn't actually mind going to. She made sure everyone understood the topic before moving on.
1095870	Sybil is awesome! She is so energetic and funny, it was not hard at all to participate in her class. She always focused on our learning functional Spanish and not on necessarily memorizing a bunch of random vocab and rules, but we ended up using the words and phrases enough that (at least for me) it wasn't too much trouble to memorize them anyways. I really feel like I could hold a (albeit short and simple and slow) conversation in Spanish after just one semester.
1114593	The instructor is very thorough with material and made sure students understood difficult subjects
1196131	She was an amazing Instructor and tried to make it fun for all of us
1197353	The instructor is amazing. She is super funny, helpful, and engaging. Her explanations make perfect sense and she always tries to get us to correct our own mistakes by giving us little hints/clues without taking away our learning opportunity. She also likes to call on everyone, so be prepared to speak up in class! Sometimes she speaks too fast in Spanish and we not be able to understand, but for the really important things she always follows up with English so we will be able to get the whole idea without confusion, making her a great teacher who fixes her own weaknesses.
1199081	I thought professor Alexandrov was an amazing instructor.
1202816	Professor Alexandrov is the reason this class was so great. She is organized, clear, well-spoken, respectful, engaging, and most importantly puts forth obvious effort into the success of each one of her students. Overall, she is probably one of the best professors I've ever had. While she was able to motivate me to do my best to learn Spanish, she was also able to inspire me to be a better person and student overall.
1205354	Profa Alexandrov is the sweetest woman and really cares about facilitating student learning.
1206537	The professor was so great. She gave us so much practice and so much feedback. Totally recommend!
1206647	Great professor who really cares about the class. She's awesome!
1210971	Probably the best teacher I have had at Yale. She was personable, knowledgeable, flexible, and just an all around great teacher. I cannot stress this enough, she is an outstanding teacher.
1211078	Prof. Alexandrov was the best professor that I had this semester, and certainly the best Spanish teacher that I have ever had. Always brings 100%, even though the class was mad early. Always organized. Provides kind, clear feedback. Circles room to make sure nobody is lost. Attentive--can spot phones like a hawk, which is always pretty funny. Clearly puts thought into her outfits, coordination game on point. Sad I can't be in her class next sem! Hope she teaches Spanish 3 in the fall.
1211083	This professor was extremely helpful, clear, and invested in your personal development and the furthering of learning the Spanish language.
1214020	Professor Alexandrov was INCREDIBLE. Words cannot describe how amazing she was a professor. I really enjoyed having her this semester and I can only think of strengths in how she taught. She goes above and beyond in the way she delivers the material to us and she brings so much excitement to the class. She really cares about us and I love that she doesn't force us to get up and out of our seats on days when she knows we really aren't feeling it. I have never taken a language class here at Yale before this year, and I only hope that my other professors are just as good! Because of my wonderful professor, I am all the more excited to learn this beautiful language and more about Spanish culture. Thank you so so much!
1217357	Professor Alexandrov was very passionate about our success as both students and Spanish speakers. She made class interesting and engaging every day.
1218529	Professor Alexandrov was enthusiastic and seemed to show a real understanding of the language. She was patient and encouraging toward students of all abilities, and she made coming to class a pleasure. I think that her only weakness was that she was not always strict about making us speak Spanish.

1202675	Professor Alexandrov was the only reason I didn't hate coming to class. She is so caring, invested, receptive, and kind to all the students. She genuinely wants to see her students succeed and that means a lot. The class itself is a bit tedious and boring, but her enthusiasm and passion help to override that.
1204203	Professor Alexandrov was great! She is one of the best professors I've had at Yale. In terms of improvement, I'd say just potentially using less written exercises in class, and finding ways to use more listening and speaking exercises.
1205677	Sybil is the best! super nice, engaging and helpful. She makes every class stimulating and fun
1211042	She is amazing. I thought her engagement with students, her energy, and her ability to teach complicated material were all top-notch. I particularly appreciated her careful diction when talking to us; she made sure to only use words we knew when communicating, which I found very helpful.
1211069	Very engaging and great at answering any questions we may have had.
1215859	I think the instructor was very good at pushing us out of our comfort zone.
1218952	I think she made the difficult structure of the class a lot more manageable. She's really engaging and fun. She also clearly cares about her students and how they feel their grasping the material.
1219487	Honestly, she was perfect. Very helpful and flexible at all moments. Energetic and funny. She truly showed affection and cared about her students.
1224125	Professor Alexandrov was not only engaging as an instructor, but incredibly engaged in the course herself. This made for an interesting, sometimes entertaining, class all semester.

1159091	Her upbeat attitude really kept the class going in the mornings which was most definitely needed. My only complaint would be the fact that we had to make an appointment for office hours because my schedule is packed with all the hours I work and volunteer. I would hate to make an appointment and then not be able to show up.
1159092	Professor Alexandrov was amazing! One of my favorite teachers at Yale. She makes the course fun, and she really cares about her students. I definitely will try to take Spanish II with her next semester.
1159093	To explain initially in english for better understanding.
1159117	She was the bomb.dot.com. She was really engaging, fun, and sympathetic toward those of us who aren't very good at languages and pushed us to understand the material.
1159125	She is generally patient, very kind, and overall fantastic.
1181022	The professor was both demanding and understanding - she expected us to show up and participate in every class and to move at a quick pace through the content, but never hesitated to slow down when we were struggling to comprehend something. Her energy, humor and kindness created a comfortable atmosphere for conversing and made learning enjoyable.
1181521	Profesora Alexandros was an angel sent to me from the teaching gods. She has endless patience and really cared about my success in the class. I expressed concern at the beginning of the semester and she always made sure that I was keeping up with the material. She made having class every day of the week seem fun, rather than like a chore. I always looked forward to class because of the wonderful energy she brought to class.

1236929	Truly excellent. Sybil was clear, engaging, fun, and challenging. She took tricky concepts and made them manageable to learn. The exams felt easy because of how well she prepared us and how she pushed us to keep improving on our own. She is a true gem that Yale is lucky to have.
1243298	She is an AMAZING instructor that really cares about her students and goes above and beyond to help them. She's vibrant, lively, intelligent and very clear with her responses. She's also very understanding of how to introduce students into a language without making them feel overwhelmed. Overall, sweet and great instructor!
1248424	Awesome professor! She was really engaging in class and made sure everyone participated/understood. Encouraged us to ask questions whenever needed. She is so lively and energetic it was very enjoyable being in her class. She also provided lots of advice and feedback after each of our assessments. You should definitely take Span 110 with Prof Alexandrov!!!
1255414	She was very engaging and nice, and knows how to teach Spanish to beginners
1259552	She was really helpful and gave us great feedback Professor Sybil Alexandrov was very enthusiastic and has an admirable love of teaching
1259782	Very clear, kept the class engaged, fun, understands what the class may have problems with and addresses those problems.
1260436	Professor Alexandrov's enthusiasm and teaching style was fantastic.
1265673	Professor Alexandrov is really exceptional. She is such a kind teacher and thoughtful instructor in all she does. Spanish is the fourth language I've studied (and I think at least the fourteenth language instructor I've had as well, counting high school and summers and Yale) and she stands far above the rest in her teaching ability. I hope that Professor Alexandrov is appreciated in her excellence as a teacher and human and that she is able to share her insights with other language departments across the university.
1267091	Strengths: Very kind, patient, enthusiastic about teaching. Her explanations about grammar were generally always very clear, and she was very responsive and adaptive to people's questions/focusing on what people seemed to have the most trouble on. Weaknesses: It's pretty hard to think of any!
