1281063	She was amazing! Encouraging, supportive, spoke only in Spanish, and did her best to engage everyone.
1293350	I love Prof Alexandrov! She is so enthusiastic about teaching and wants the best for every student. I would definitely take her class again!
1293501	Shes is incredible. She challenges us to us spanish as much as possible (95% of the class, Id say), but knows when to instruct us in English for perfect clarity. Additionally, she brings her own learning techniques (pneumonics and such) to help us learn beyond the course packet and curriculum.
1293848	Professor Alexandrov has no real weaknesses. She is engaging, kind, funny, and does a great job teaching in an efficient manner given how short classes are. I looked forward to coming to class everyday.
1294290	The instructor did a great job of ensuring all students were engaged and learning. The instructor maintained a balance between helping the students learn Spanish and helping the students bond as a class.
1294785	Strengths: genuinely cares about her students and their learning, will tailor the course based on student feedback, is an incredibly funny person who creates a comfortable class environment, cares about what she's teaching, comes to class prepared and makes herself available for help if students need it. Weaknesses: none. She's amazing! I loved learning from her.
1295439	The instructor was very effective in her method of teaching.
1300547	I can't identify any weakness with Professor Alexandrov. Her passion for teaching was present in every lesson taught and she animated the concepts in a way that made sense. I would be delighted to take a course with her in the future and and very grateful to her for a wonderful first semester.
1303881	I really can't fault Professor Alexandrov. I felt she cared deeply for our learning and excelled in explaining difficult constructs. She took time to help every student improve and was always available to answer any questions I had. She marked very fairly and was went out of her way to explain where you went wrong. I wish she taught L3.

1377817	She was very good at explaining concepts and answered all questions without being condescending. I felt like I could ask her any Spanish question, big or small
1377938	Professor Alexandrov is perhaps the best professor I have had at Yale, and I have had Patrick Devlin for Math 230. She is a great explainer who inserts humanity and wit into dry and hopeless situations. More than that, she is a good person who sincerely cares about the well-beings of her students. This was a miserable class, and I am glad that it is now in the past, but I will miss seeing Professor Alexandrov despite of this. I suggest that the Spanish department give her every benefit possible, allow her to teach whatever she wants however she wants, and elect her to the position of "Supreme Ruler of All Things" for eternity. I will be submitting a fervent nomination for whatever end of the semester instructor award pops up on the next screen on her behalf.
1378189	Profesora Alexandro is an amazing instructor, and I really enjoyed being taught by her. It was privilege to be in her class. She was so good at explaining everything and was so helpful when you didn't understand topics.
1379636	Strengths: awesome. she made this transition so easy and truly cared about our individual successes. 10/10 recommend Weaknesses: none
1387166	Professor Alexandrov is amazing. Shes incredibly sweet, funny, and genuinely seems to want you to succeed. Shes also great at facilitating classroom discussion and explaining new spanish concepts
1392127	Sybil was great
1393116	Shes is great
1393377	The instructor was very kind and compassionate while still being professional and stern where necessary. It was a pleasure learning from her and I would recommend that others take this course with her.
1393526	Professor Alexandrov genuinely cares about all of the students and made an effort to make sure we all understood. If we didn't get something, she'd try to explain it in various ways so it would make sense.
1393799	Professor Alexandrov was a great instructor. She was always high-energy in class (9:25 am every day!) and very knowledgeable and willing to help.
1394240	Professor Alexandrov made my first experience with a language at Yale an experience I won't forget. You will learn, and she makes sure to help you along your individual journey as a student. Your grade might not reflect just how far you've come as a speaker, especially in the beginning when you're adjusting, but you will improve and you'll love it!

Respondent	Answer
1389466	Sybil was great at explaining concepts we went over in class and keeping people engaged.
1390389	Strengths: She was encouraging, clear and easy to understand, and always willing to meet outside of normal office hours to practice speaking Spanish. Areas of improvement: She was a harsh grader, especially on the in-class essays and class room participation.
1390976	The instructor was amazing, I loved going to class and getting to be taught by this professor. Her enthusiasm was evident and it seems that she really cares about her students. Her teaching is very clear and some of the best teaching of grammar that I've ever had. She really tries to connect with students and make them comfortable. I enjoyed that she was somewhat critical of some of the more unfavorable syllabus choices and it made me confident that she would have done things differently/better if she had the choice. Such a good teacher, I can't recommend her enough!
1392611	She was one of the best professors I have ever had and brought a great energy to the class
1393678	Such a great instructor! Very enthusiastic and engaging. Patient and understanding when students had questions or were confused and I never felt judged or intimidated to ask questions.
1393687	She was a great instructor. She really wanted to help students learned, cared about her students.
1393793	She was great at teaching grammar concepts and facilitating class.
1403414	The instructor was very good at engaging the students in the class and making sure that all the students contributed on a regular basis. She is a very good teacher and encouraged all the students to speak in Spanish as much as possible which is clearly an important aspect of the class. She taught at the perfect level of the course and made sure that the students understood and created an environment where if they did not, they could easily ask questions.
1406985	Wonderful teacher!! If you go to office hours, she will sit with you and make sure that you understand concepts. She is also very encouraging and non-judgemental, which I appreciated a lot.
1415883	Professor Alexandrov was an excellent instructor. She responded thoughtfully to our questions, kept the classes interesting and varied, and brought a great deal of enthusiasm to every class. I appreciated the tips and tricks she often provided to help learn and remember new grammar points.
Respondent	Answer
1328500	Professor Alexandrov had one of the most engaging teaching styles I have experienced at Yale, and created a welcome and fun environment for students to learn. She made coming to class everyday a fun task.
1329671	My professor was amazing! She was always so engaging and kept the class interesting.
1331099	The instructor is fabulous. She is willing to work with her students every step of the way. I highly suggest taking any course with her.
1332963	Professor Alexandrov was great with feedback throughout most of the writing we did throughout the year, was great with involving all of the students while also creating fun activities for us.
