Question 2

Please evaluate each instructor of Spanish 130 09 . What are the instructor's strengths and weaknesses, and in what ways might his or her teaching be improved?

Response 1

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya was awesome.

Response 2

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya is awesome and a great teacher. She always helps the students through when they don't understand something and presents the material well

Response 3

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya was my favorite spanish teacher at Yale. She is young and dynamic and has a good sense of humor. Spanish classes could drag on for very long before, but in L3 they went by quite fast with Tanya.

Response 4

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya was great! She was always very enthusiastic and very helpful.

Response 5

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya is nice.

Response 6

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Strengths - Personality, Provided extra material on grammar that gave students trouble, Humor, Helpfulness, Jeopardy games
Minor Weakness - Office hours at 8 am. HOWEVER, she was always available by e-mail and she made appointments.
Overall - I think that she has been the best Spanish teacher I've had so far!

Response 7

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

See question 4.

Response 8

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya is an excellent instructor. She made the class enjoyable to attend and taught the material clearly.

Response 9

7 Tanya 8 9 Romero-Gonzalez

Tanya is a fabulous professor. She is a great communicator and really on top of things organizational. She always has more than one way of explaining things which is greater for people learning languages, and her classes are fun and entertaining. I am trying to take my next spanish class with her as well.

Response 1 4 7 9

Yale. You work consistently through a textbook, so the work is predictable. If you commit to speaking spanish 100% of the time in class you can really maximize your comfort with speaking the language, otherwise you can skate by, only answering direct questions in spanish. If you're finishing out your language requirement, you really dont have any choice but to take this class. Fortunately, its a pretty good one, so don't fret. Do your homework (it's like 5 min a night) and you should be just dandy.

Response 10

General overview of L1 and L2 Spanish.

NEXTQuestion 4

How would you summarize Spanish 130 09 for a fellow student? Would you recommend Spanish 130 09 to another student? Why or why not?

Response 1

L3 Spanish was WAY better than L2. A lot of the material is review from what you have already learned. Daily classes sucked.

Response 2

pretty chill. lots of review of L1 and L2. take it with Tanya for sure, shes really chill and a good teacher.

Response 3

A good review of L2 after a summer of having forgotten pretty much everything--with built in additional grammar. A lot more movies, games and short story reading. Would definitely recommend going for L3 if you are wavering between L2 and L3--in L2 everything is much more basic and dry.

Response 4

Review, doesn't teach anything new from L1 and L2.

Response 5

I would recommend it, it's a good class to improve your Spanish.

Response 6

Less intense than L2. Tanya is really helpful.

Response 7

It was good! Tanya is very sweet. When she cannot answer your question or does not understand, she will look it up after class and email you or talk about it the next day, which is great. She is Spanish, so if you have a preference about which accent you'd like to pick up, that's something that might make her better or worse for you. Really great though.

Response 8

This is a good class - especially if you take it with Tanya.

Response 9

A very solid spanish class. A little high school-like in that there is homework due every day, but that's just languages at
